Questions

1. What is the significance of finding highly atypical trophoblastic cells in an abortion? Is there any other possibility than trophoblastic disease?

2. In what cases do you see trophoblastic hyperplasia in the placenta? Is it always indication of trophoblastic disease?

3. What are the best Immunostains for intermediate trophoblast?

4. Between placental cell islands and plaques and tumors of the intermediate trophoblast, are there hyperplastic lesions of the intermediate trophoblast?

5. Is it necessary to separate ETT from PSTT? How about calling them Intermediate Trophoblast Tumors?

6. When do you suspect partial mole?

7. What is the significance of intermediate trophoblast in complete mole?

8. Is the behavior of choriocarcinoma from a complete mole (only paternal) different from choriocarcinoma in normal pregnancy?

9. Have you seen cases of trophoblastic diseases secreting hyperglycosylated hCG?

10. In trophoblastic lesions, what is the worst diagnostic problem you have seen?

11. In trophoblastic lesions, what has been your worst diagnostic mistake?